

Nevada Farm Bureau – Dave Fulstone II Scholarship Award

Dave Fulstone II was a past president of the Nevada Farm Bureau who dedicated his life to the well-being of Nevada agriculture. He was passionate in his support of a sustainable agriculture industry in Nevada and was never afraid to tackle the tough issues or face strong opponents in defense of the agriculture industry and producers. The scholarship committee desires to provide financial assistance to students who exemplify those characteristics.

Amount: One $1,000 award will be available.

Application submission deadline: April 1st

Who may apply: The scholarship award is open to any student graduating from high school this year, a current college student, or a trade school student who is furthering their education in a course of study pertaining to agriculture. The candidate must be from a Nevada Farm Bureau member family.
